FOR DROPSY.

1 NEVER SHALL FORGET THE FIRST

Providence.

Dear Sir-I have been a great sufferer from dropsy. I was confined to my house more than a year. Six months of the time I was entirely helpless. I was obliged to have two men help me in an out of bed. I was swollen 19 inches larger than the property of the swollen in the swoll Mr. H. R. Stevens: inches larger than my natural size around my Writ. I suffered all a man could and live. weit. I suffered all a man could and live. I tried all remedies for Dropsy. I had three different doctors. My friends all expected I would die: many nights I was expected to die before morning. At last Vegetine was sent me by a friend. I never shall forget the first dose. I could realize its good effects from day to day I was getting better. After I had taken some of 6 bottles I could sleep quite well nights. I began to gain now quite fast. After taking some 10 bottles, I could walk from one part of my room to the other. My appetite was good; the dropsy had at this time dissappeared. I kept taking the Vegetine until I regained my usual health. I heard of a great many cures by using Vegetine after I got out and was able to attend to my work. I am a carpenter and builder. I will also say it has cured an aunt of my aged person. I cannot be too thankful for the Very gratefully yours. JOHN S. NOTTAGE.

ALL DISKASES OF THE BLOOD.—If Vegetine will relieve pain; cleanse, purify, and cure such diseases, restoring the patient to perfect health after trying different physicians, many remedies and suffering for years, is it not conclusive proof, if you are a sufferer you can be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the blood, in the circulating fluid. It can truly be called the Great Blood Purifier. The great source of disease originates in the blood; and no medicine that does not act directly upon it to purify and that does not act directly upon it to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public atten-

VEGETINE I OWE MY HEALTH TO YOUR VALU-ABLE VEGETINE.

Newport, Ky., April 29, 1877.

H. R. Slevens, esq. Dear Sir-Having suffered from a breaking out of Cankerous Sores for more than five years, caused by an accident of a fractured bone, which fracture ran into a running sore, and having used everything I could think of and nothing helped me until I had taken six bottles of your valuable medicine, which Mr. Miller, the fellow, a thorough trifler with the affections of apothecary, recommended very nighly. The sixth bottle cured me, and all I can say is, that I owe my health to your valuable Vegetine.

Your most obedient servant.
ALBERT VON ROEDER. "It is unnecessary for me to enumerate the diseases for which the Vegetine should be used. I know of no disease which will not admit of its use, with good results. Almost innumerable complaints are caused by poisonous secretions in the blood, which can be entirely expelled from the system by the use of the Vegetine. When the blood is perfectly cleansed the disease rapidly yields; all pains cease; healthy action is promptly restored, and the patient is cured."

VEGETINE CURED ME WHEN THE DOCTORS

FAILED.

Cincinnati, O., April 10, 1877. Dr. H. R. Stevens: Dear Sir: I was seriously troubled with Kidney Complaint for a long time. I have consulted the best doctors in this city. I have used your Vegetine for this disease, and it has cured me when the doctors failed to do so. Yours truly, KRNEST DURIGAN, Residence, 621 Race st. Place of business, 573 Central avenue.

The Kingsbury estate, when old Mijer Kingsbury died, in 1854, was considered worth some $3,000,000. It consisted of the property now known as the Ashland and Kingsbury blocks, on the corner of Clark and Randolph streets, as well as some 20 acres of dock prop erty on Kinzie street, on the north side. Oa his death, Major Kingsbury left the property to his two children, the late Mrs. Buckner, wite of Gen. Simon B. Buckner, and the issue Henry W. Kingsbury, father of the present litigious infant. In May, 1861. Mrs. Buckper convoyed the whole of her interest in the estate to her brotker and co heir, Henry W. Kingsbury, who was then unmarried. Gen. Buckner, immediately after the conveyance of the property, joined the Confederate army, where he gained his present ade. Henry W. Kingsbury almost immediately exerward married a daughter of Gen. Richard Taylor, a brother of the ex President. Un'ike his brother in law, Gen. Buckner, he then entered the Federal service, and was killed in September, 1862, at the battle of Antietam. 1 1 the December following, the present infaut, Henry W. Kingsbury was born.

Mrs. Gen. Buckner, on the conclusion of the war took steps to recover the properly conveyed by her in 1861 to her brother, claiming that the conveyance was made solely in trust and without consideration. While she was engaged in asserting her claim, Judge Corydon B ck with, as next friend of the infant, filed a toll to the State Circuit Court to set aside her cains and to quiet the title. Mrs. Buckner filed an answer, as well as a cross bill, alleging that the conveyance of the property to her brother was io trust. The case was decided by Judge Wil liams in favor of Mrs. Buckner, and he ordered a decree to be entered reconveying the property to her. The case was twice taken to the Sapreme Court, which, in 1873, finally affirmed the decree of the Circuit Court, whereupon a divi i B on behalf of the infant, against Simon B. Buck ner and wife, Ambrose E. Burnside, Corydon Beckwith, and Jane C. Kingsbury, to set aside the decree already obtained on the ground of error, as well as of fraud and collusion. This case was then removed to the United States Circuit Court, where it has since been pending. In the meantime Mrs. Buckner died, leaving to her husband all her share of the estate. Saturday Judge Blodgett decided to dismiss the bill for want of equity, holding that the huigh tion in the State courts was conclusive as to the rights of the parties to the property. - Chicago Tribune.

Love in its Dotage. Mr. Justice Denman has had the monotony of his business at Winohester assiz s relieved by a breach of promise case which, even at a time when such actions are as plentiful as blackberries and as varied as human tastes, may claim the merit of conspicuous novelty. A giddy child of 70 years was the plaintiff, and attend to my work. I am a carpenter and builder. I will also say it has cured an aunt of my wife's of Neuralgia, who had suffered for more than 20 years. She says she has not had any neuralgia for eight months. I have given it to one of my children for Canker Humor. I have no doubt in my mind it will cure any humor; it is a great cleanser of the blood; it is safe to give a child. I will recommend it to the world. My father is 80 years old, and he says there is not had any speak of triendship in that remote past, we im agine that their friendship must then have agine that their friendship must then have for the tender flame burned brightly, it seems, the plaintiff, and a giddy child of 70 years was the plaintiff, and a gay lad of just one year older the defendant. They knew one another in the dim long ago, and, though the matter of fact pleadings only speak of friendship in that remote past, we im agine that their friendship must then have agine that their friendship must then have for the tender flame burned brightly, it seems, for the tender flame burned brightly, it seems, after the lapse of 50 years. to marry the septuagenarian female. There was no doubt about the engagement or the promise. The plaintiff insisted that the defendant "named the happy day" for the 11th of last September. The defendant a mitted that he had put up the bans and tal lodings for their future home, but denied to he had committed himself to so imprudent fellow, a thorough trifler with the affections of the amorous old lady. He said he was ill, to which she replied that he was well enough to walk to the doctor's, so of course he was well enough to fulfill his pledge. The marriage, however, did not take place, and Mrs. Lucy.

She told him that she would not have him, "if he came with his hair covered with diamonds, and so went on with the action. She went into weeds and a false front," explaining that the former was a tribute to the "dear departed" and the latter "was made necessary because her hair had fallen off through the heartless conduct of the defendant." Her weeds, or her false front, or her pitcous story, seems to have had an effect upon the jury, for they awarded the old lady £10, which is probably more than
